

2017 USMC 3/3 Kilo Company Reunion Philadelphia, PA

To our Kilo Family and Friends,

It's finally here!! The plans for our August 2017 Kilo Family Reunion. After a few months of planning and plotting I think we've got an agenda that is going to be fun for everyone. I've been over to our hotel a couple of times now and the group sales coordinator is really excited for us to stay and has reserved some waterfront rooms for us!

Our reservation block is for Thursday August 17 - Sunday August 21, 2017. We've tried to make the itinerary compatible with anyone's schedule so that you can join us for the entire time or just the weekend - whatever suits your calendar.

Philadelphia is an amazing city and we could keep you here for weeks and not see the same thing twice but the desire to have everyone together for some quality comradery outweighs our desire to bombard you with history! On the following page you'll find the tentative itinerary as rain may alter a few things here or there.

Luckily for us breakfast is included at the hotel each morning. It's a huge bar that includes hot and cold food and two large eating areas. One set registration fee will also include:

- Pizza on Thursday during the lunch hour for those arriving early.
- Lunch on Friday
- Our official dinner on Saturday as well as the hall rental
- Snacks, drinks and adult beverages in the hospitality room for the entire reunion

The only thing you'll need to pay for when you get here is dinner on Thursday and Friday nights and lunch on Saturday!

We've also been tossing around the idea of a reunion t-shirt. The prototype turned out so well we are including an option to order a shirt and have it ready for pickup at the reunion.

How to Get Here

You have a few options here. If you're close you can drive, but remember parking is at a premium in the city. Philadelphia International Airport is only 15 minutes away. The Amtrak also comes directly into Philadelphia to the 30th Street Station. (We have children in the area and fully intend to use them as slave labor if you need to be picked up at the airport or train station.)

If you're flying in I highly recommend going to www.google.com/flights to check on the most current prices. It's a great tool for shopping around and you can even set alerts when prices drop. For ease of operation I would also recommend flying into PHL but you may have additional options from your home area.

For Those Unable To Attend:

We know that time, logistics, age and illness can sometime make attending reunions difficult if not impossible. Therefore we would like to plan a time at some point over the weekend to set up some Skype, FaceTime or good old fashioned phone calls to those who would like to stay connected. Keep this in the back of your minds and please reach out with your contact information if you're unable to attend physically but want to connect electronically. Input and feedback on this is appreciated!

Contact Information:

If you have any questions/concerns/requests, please do not hesitate to reach out to either myself or Robert (Bob) at:

More information will be forthcoming as the menus are finalized and we have a firmer head count. In the meantime I have set up a Facebook page for the reunion for anyone on social media. If you search "2017 Philadelphia Kilo 3/3 Reunion" you'll find the page. You'll probably have to click "ask to join" but I'll add you asap as soon as that comes through. Feel free to post questions, comments or suggestions but let's keep it upbeat and friendly for everyone!

Can't wait to see all of you in August.

Semper Fi!

All the best,
